COMPLAINT

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, Louis N. Marks, brings this action against his former employers, SPX Corporation (“Defendant SPX”) and CUES, Inc. (“Defendant CUES”) (collectively “Defendants”). Mr. Marks, a then seventy-four (74) year old attorney with decades of experience, was terminated because of his age. Mr. Marks was replaced by a significantly younger employee. After terminating Mr. Marks’ employment, Defendants refused to honor his contractual right to six months severance pay. Defendants’ conduct constitutes a violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, 29 U.S.C. §621, et seq. (“ADEA”), the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, as amended, 43 P.S. §951, et seq.

(“PHRA”), the Pennsylvania Wage Payment and Collection Law, 43 P.S. §260.1 et seq. (“WPCL”), and a breach of contract.

II. PARTIES

1. Plaintiff, Louis N. Marks, is an individual and a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
2. Plaintiff was seventy-four (74) years old at the time of his termination.
3. Defendant SPX is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business located at 6325 Ardrey Kell Road, Suite 400, Charlotte, North Carolina 28277.
4. Defendant CUES is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business located at 3600 Rio Vista Avenue, Orlando, Florida 32805.
5. Defendant CUES is a wholly-owned and controlled subsidiary of Defendant SPX.
6. Defendants are engaged in industries affecting interstate commerce and regularly do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
7. Defendants are registered and authorized to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with registered agents located in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for service of legal process.
8. Defendant CUES maintains a place of business in Pennsylvania.
9. Defendant CUES is a mere instrumentality of Defendant SPX, as such, Defendants share and exercise control over the work or working conditions of its employees.
10. Defendant SPX is the “alter ego” of its controlled subsidiary Defendant CUES.

11. Defendants are interconnected such that they are considered a “single” and/or “integrated” employer and/or enterprise.

12. Defendants employed, and still currently employ, several individuals in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including Plaintiff who was subjected to, impacted, and harmed by the discriminatory practice and unlawful acts alleged herein and giving rise to this action.

13. Defendant SPX is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court because, inter alia, the case arises out of or relates to the contacts of SPX with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the contacts of SPX are continuous and systematic such that SPX is at home here, and/or SPX has consented to personal jurisdiction by registering to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a registered agent for service of process.

14. Defendant CUES is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court because, inter alia, the case arises out of or relates to the contacts of CUES with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the contacts of CUES are continuous and systematic such that CUES is at home here, and/or CUES has consented to personal jurisdiction by registering to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a registered agent for service of process.

15. At all times material hereto, Defendants employed more than twenty (20) employees.

16. At all times material hereto, Defendants acted by and through their authorized agents, servants, workmen, and/or employees acting within the course and scope of their employment with Defendants and in furtherance of Defendants’ business.

17. At all times material hereto, Defendants acted as employers within the meaning of the statutes which form the basis of this matter.

18. At all times material hereto, Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants within the meaning of the statutes which form the basis of this matter.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19. The causes of action which form the basis of this matter arise under the ADEA, the PHRA, the WPCL and from a breach of contract.

20. The District Court has jurisdiction over Count I (ADEA) pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §626(c) and 28 U.S.C. §1331.

21. The District Court has jurisdiction over all counts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 since the amount in controversy in the present action exceeds the sum or value of seventy five thousand dollars ($75,000), exclusive of interests and costs, and where there exists complete diversity of citizenship, as Plaintiff is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Defendants are not citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

22. The District Court has jurisdiction over Count II (PHRA) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

23. The District Court has jurisdiction over Count III (Breach of Contract) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

24. The District Court has jurisdiction over Count IV (WPCL) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

25. Venue is proper in the District Court under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b).

26. On or about September 27, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Complaint of Discrimination with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (“PHRC”), complaining of acts of discrimination alleged herein. This Complaint was cross-filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”). Attached hereto, incorporated herein and marked as Exhibit “1” is a true and correct copy of the PHRC Complaint of Discrimination (with personal identifying information redacted).

27. More than three hundred and sixty-five (365) days have passed from the day Plaintiff filed his Complaint of Discrimination with the PHRC.

28. Therefore, Plaintiff has fully complied with all administrative prerequisites for the commencement of this action.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

29. Plaintiff was hired by Defendant CUES, on or about January 1, 2016 as its Vice President and General Counsel.

30. Prior to being hired by Defendant CUES, Plaintiff worked consistently as outside counsel for Defendant CUES from in or about January 2010.

31. Plaintiff consistently performed his job duties in a highly competent manner and received positive feedback.

32. Plaintiff was born on October 3, 1944. He was seventy-four (74) years old at the time of his termination.

33. Plaintiff worked out of his home office in Wynnewood, Pennsylvania.

34. Plaintiff reported to Alexander Milley (67¹) (“Milley”), President and Chief Executive Officer of Defendant CUES.

35. In or around June 2018, Defendant CUES was purchased by Defendant SPX.

36. To Plaintiff’s knowledge and belief, he was the oldest employee of ¹ All ages herein are to the best of Plaintiff’s knowledge and belief.

Defendant CUES.

37. Defendants SPX and CUES excluded Plaintiff from certain communications and meetings related to his job.

38. Milley told Plaintiff that he wanted to be a witness if and when Defendant SPX terminated Plaintiff's employment because Plaintiff would have "one hell of an age discrimination case."

39. In January 2019, Defendants failed to give Plaintiff a salary increase despite his outstanding performance.

40. Milley apologized to Plaintiff that he was not given a salary increase as other employees with outstanding performance reviews received salary increases.

41. Plaintiff was not given a salary increase because of his age.

42. Milley routinely told Plaintiff that he was performing at an "exceptionally high level" and doing an "outstanding job."

43. On or about July 12, 2019, on a phone call with John Swann ("Swann") (48), President of Weil-McLain, Marley Engineered Products and Radiodetection, and Candie Russell ("Russell") (45), Vice President, Human Resources, Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment effective immediately.

44. Swann's stated reason for Plaintiff's termination was that his position did not "fit structurally" within the business.

45. Swann stated that Milley was not part of the phone call because Milley disagreed with the decision to terminate Plaintiff's employment.

46. Defendants' stated reason for terminating Plaintiff's employment is pretext.

47. Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment because of his age.

48. Before the termination meeting, Plaintiff had no indication that his job was in jeopardy or that his employment would be terminated.

49. To the best of Plaintiff's knowledge and belief, he was the only employee at Defendants that was terminated on July 12, 2019.

50. To the best of Plaintiff's knowledge and belief, all other employees of Defendants were retained, all of whom, upon Plaintiff's knowledge and belief, are younger, if not substantially younger, than Plaintiff.

51. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff with any explanation, including the criteria, as to how his position did not "fit structurally" within Defendants' business and why younger employees were retained.

52. Plaintiff had no opportunity or option to remain employed with Defendants.

53. Plaintiff had no performance or disciplinary issues at any time throughout his employment with Defendants.

54. On or about July 12, 2019, following Plaintiff's termination, on a phone call with Milley, Plaintiff asked Milley what was going on. Milley sounded as though he was very upset and stated that he was concerned about Plaintiff, that he felt "dirty," that he would "take care of [Plaintiff]," and that he was sad that they would not be working together any longer.

55. Milley told Plaintiff that he was against the decision to terminate Plaintiff's employment, that he was not allowed to call Plaintiff to warn him before the termination meeting, and that he was told that Plaintiff would be terminated despite his objection.

56. Milley stated that Plaintiff's termination was disruptive to Defendant CUES, that executives and employees liked and respected Plaintiff and his work, and that Plaintiff had improved Defendant CUES' business.

57. On July 12, 2019, following Plaintiff's termination, Defendants sent out a letter, signed by John Nurkin (48), Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Defendant SPX, entitled "Organizational Announcement – Legal Team," stating the following: "[W]e are making some changes within our Legal function to reflect SPX's legal service operating model. Effective today, John Armstrong (Sr. Business Counsel) will provide legal support for CUES...This change will allow CUES to receive dedicated legal support will also benefitting from the SPX Legal Team's initiatives to streamline processes and leverage best practices across SPX...John will be an asset in assisting CUES. John first joined the SPX Legal Team in August 2017....In the weeks ahead, John will be working with [Alexander] Milley and the CUES team to transition into his expanded role."

58. Defendants replaced Plaintiff with John Armstrong (45), Senior Business Counsel.

59. Plaintiff was more qualified and experienced to perform his job duties than the substantially younger employee with whom Defendants replaced him.

60. After Plaintiff's employment was terminated, Milley told Plaintiff that, in his opinion, Plaintiff had "one hell of an age discrimination case."

61. Plaintiff's age was a motivating and/or determinative factor in connection with Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff, including terminating Plaintiff's employment.

62. Defendants have also refused to honor their contract with Plaintiff for six (6) months of severance pay.

63. Plaintiff is entitled to six (6) months of severance because in or about

January or February of 2018, Milley, on behalf of Defendant CUES, informed Plaintiff that in exchange for Plaintiff's continued employment, Plaintiff would receive six (6) months of severance pay in the event that his employment was terminated. Plaintiff accepted this offer.

64. Despite the contract, Defendants have refused to pay Plaintiff severance unless Plaintiff signs a release of claims.

65. The contract between Plaintiff and Defendants does not require Plaintiff to sign a release of claims in order to receive severance pay.

66. At the time of his termination, Plaintiff was making $300,000 per year.

67. To date, Defendants have not paid Plaintiff $150,000 for the six (6) months of severance to which he has a contractual right.

68. As a direct and proximate result of the discriminatory conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff has in the past incurred, and may in the future incur, a loss of earnings and/or earning capacity, loss of benefits, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, loss of self-esteem, mental anguish and loss of life's pleasures, the full extent of which is not known at this time.

69. The conduct of Defendants, as set forth above, was willful and intentional.

70. By failing to pay Plaintiff six (6) months of severance, Defendants breached its contract with Plaintiff and violated the Wage Payment and Collection.

71. Plaintiff has suffered damages as a result of Defendants' breach.

COUNT I – VIOLATION OF THE AGE DISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT ACT

72. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the above paragraphs as if set forth herein in their entirety.

73. By committing the foregoing acts of discrimination against Plaintiff, Defendants have violated the ADEA.

74. Said violations were willful and warrant the imposition of liquidated damages.

75. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the ADEA, Plaintiff has suffered the damages and losses set forth herein and has incurred attorney's fees and costs.

76. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' discriminatory acts unless and until this Court grants the relief requested herein.

77. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT II – VIOLATION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA HUMAN RELATIONS ACT

78. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the above paragraphs as if set forth herein in their entirety.

79. Defendants, by the above improper and discriminatory acts, have violated the PHRA.

80. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the PHRA, Plaintiff has sustained the injuries, damages, and losses set forth herein.

81. Plaintiff has incurred and is entitled to all costs and attorneys' fees incurred as a result of the unlawful behavior complained of herein.

82. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' discriminatory acts unless and until this Court grants the relief requested herein.

83. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT III – BREACH OF CONTRACT

84. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the above paragraphs as if set forth herein in their entirety.

85. In consideration for his employment and performance with Defendants, Plaintiff earned the benefit of the full value of the contract for severance.

86. By terminating Plaintiff's employment and failing to pay him the contractually obligated six (6) months of severance, Defendants breached the contract.

87. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breach, Plaintiff has suffered the loss of his severance, which remains due to him.

88. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' acts unless and until this Court grants the relief requested herein.

89. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT IV – VIOLATION OF THE WAGE PAYMENT AND COLLECTION LAW

90. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the above paragraphs as if set forth herein in their entirety.

91. Plaintiff's severance constitutes earnings and/or wages of an employee as defined by Pa. C.S. §260.1 et seq.

92. In consideration for his employment and performance with Defendants, Plaintiff earned the full value of the contract.

93. Upon Plaintiff's termination, the severance became due and owing within thirty (30) days of the regular payday, but Defendants wrongfully withheld, and continue to withhold, payment.

94. In denying payment of the severance to Plaintiff, Defendants have violated the Wage Payment and Collection Law, and that sum is due and owing.

95. There is no good faith dispute that the severance is owed to Plaintiff.

96. Plaintiff is entitled to recover liquidated damages against Defendants under Section 260.10 of the Wage Payment and Collection Law.

97. In addition, Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as a result of Defendants' violation of the Wage Payment and Collection law.

98. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks damages and legal and equitable relief in connection with Defendants' improper conduct, and specifically prays that the Court grant the following relief to the Plaintiff by:

(a) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of the ADEA;

(b) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of the PHRA;

(c) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in breach of contract;

(d) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of the WPCL;

- (e) enjoining and permanently restraining the violations alleged herein;
- (f) entering judgment against the Defendants and in favor of the Plaintiff in an amount to be determined;
- (g) awarding compensatory damages to make the Plaintiff whole for all lost earnings, earning capacity and benefits, past and future, which Plaintiff has suffered or may suffer as a result of Defendants' improper conduct;
- (h) awarding compensatory damages to Plaintiff for past and future pain and suffering, emotional upset, mental anguish, humiliation, and loss of life's pleasures, which Plaintiff has suffered or may suffer as a result of Defendants' improper conduct;
- (i) awarding liquidated damages to Plaintiff under the ADEA and WPCL;
- (j) awarding damages to Plaintiff as a result of Defendants' breach of contract;
- (k) awarding Plaintiff such other damages as are appropriate under the ADEA, PHRA, and WPCL;
- (l) awarding Plaintiff the costs of suit, expert fees and other disbursements, and attorneys' fees; and,
- (m) granting such other and further relief as this Court may deem just, proper, or equitable including other equitable and injunctive relief providing restitution for past violations and preventing future violations.

1. The Complainant herein is:

Name: Louis N. Marks

Address:

2. The Respondents herein are:

Name: SPX Corporation (“Respondent SPX”); CUES, Inc. (“Respondent CUES”); John Swann (“Respondent Swann”), aider and abettor; Candie Russell (“Respondent Russell”)

Address of Respondent SPX: 133220-A Ballantyne Corporate Place
Charlotte, NC 28277

Address of Respondent CUES: 3600 Rio Vista Avenue
Orlando FL, 32805

3. I, Louis N. Marks, the Complainant herein, allege that I was subjected to unlawful discrimination because of my age (74) as set forth below.

Discrimination

A. I specifically allege:

- [1] I was hired by Respondent CUES as Vice President and General Counsel on or about January 1, 2016.
- [2] Prior to being hired by Respondent CUES, I worked as outside counsel for Respondent CUES since in or about January 2010.
- [3] I consistently performed my job duties in a highly competent manner, and received positive feedback.
- [4] I am age seventy-four (74), and my birth date is October 3, 1944.
- [5] I worked out of my home office in Wynnewood, Pennsylvania.
- [6] I held the position of Vice President and General Counsel of Respondent CUES.
- [7] I reported to Alexander Milley (67¹), President and Chief Executive Officer of Respondent CUES. To my knowledge and belief, Milley reported to Respondent John Swann (48), President of Weil-McLain, Marley Engineered Products and Radiodetection of Respondent SPX.
- [8] In or about June 2018, Respondent CUES was purchased by Respondent SPX.

[9] To my knowledge and belief, I was the oldest employee at Respondent SPX and Respondent CUES.

[10] Respondent SPX and Respondent CUES excluded me from certain communications and meetings related to my job duties.

[11] Milley told me that he wanted to be a witness if and when Respondent SPX terminated my employment because I would have “one hell of an age discrimination case.”

[12] In January 2019, Respondent SPX and Respondent CUES failed to give me a salary increase despite my outstanding performance review. Milley apologized to me that I was not given a salary increase, as the majority of other employees, particularly those with outstanding performance reviews, received a salary increase.

[13] I was not given a salary increase because of my age.

[14] Milley routinely told me that I was performing at an “exceptionally high level” and doing an “outstanding job.”

[15] On July 12, 2019, in a phone call with Respondent Swann and Respondent Candie Russell (45), Vice President, Human Resources, my employment was terminated, effective immediately. I was blindsided. The stated reason was that my position did not “fit structurally” within the business. Respondent Swann stated that Milley was not part of the phone call because he disagreed with the decision to terminate my employment.

[16] Respondents’ stated reason for my termination is pretext.

[17] Respondents terminated my employment because of my age.

[18] Before the termination meeting, I had no indication that my job was in jeopardy or my employment would be terminated.

[19] To my knowledge and belief, I was the only employees at Respondent CUES and Respondent SPX that was terminated on July 12, 2019.

[20] To my knowledge and belief, all other employees at Respondent CUES and Respondent SPX were retained, all of whom, to my knowledge and belief, are younger, if not substantially younger, than me.

[21] Respondents failed to provide me with any explanation, including the criteria, as to how my position did not “fit structurally” within Respondent CUES’ and Respondent SPX’s business and why younger employees were retained.

[22] I had no opportunity or option to remain employed with Respondent CUES and/or Respondent SPX.

[23] I had no performance or disciplinary issues at any time throughout my employment with Respondent CUES and/or Respondent SPX.

[24] On July 12, 2019, following my termination, in a phone call with Milley, I asked him what was going on. Milley sounded as though he was almost in tears, and stated that he was concerned about me, that he felt “dirty,” that he would “take care of [me],” and that he was sad that we would not be working together any longer. Milley told me that he was against the decision to terminate my employment, that he was not allowed to call me to warn me before the termination meeting, and that he was told that I would be terminated despite his objection. Milley stated that my termination was disruptive to Respondent CUES, that executives and employees liked and respected me and my work, and that I had improved Respondent CUES’ business.

[25] On July 12, 2019, following my termination, Respondents sent out a letter, signed by John Nurkin (48), Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Respondent SPX, entitled “Organizational Announcement – Legal Team,” stating the following: “[W]e are making some changes within our Legal function to reflect SPX’s legal service operating model.

Effective today, John Armstrong (Sr. Business Counsel) will provide legal support for CUES This change will allow CUES to receive dedicated legal support while also benefitting from the SPX Legal Team’s initiatives to streamline processes and leverage best practices across SPX. . . . John will be an asset in assisting CUES. John first joined the SPX Legal Team in August 2017 In the weeks ahead, John will be working with [Alexander] Milley and the CUES team to transition into his expanded role.”

[26] Respondents replaced me with John Armstrong (45), Senior Business Counsel. I was more qualified and experienced to perform my job duties than the substantially younger employee with whom Respondents replaced me.

[27] After my employment was terminated, Milley told me that, in his opinion, I had “one hell of an age discrimination case.”

[28] Respondents discriminated against me based on my age in terminating my employment.

[29] Respondent Swann aided and abetted Respondent SPX and Respondent CUES in discriminating against me based on my age.

[30] Respondent Russell aided and abetted Respondent SPX and Respondent CUES in discriminating against me based on my age.

B. Based on the aforementioned, I allege that Respondents have discriminated against me because of my age (74), in violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 623 et seq. (“ADEA”), and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, as amended, 43 P.S. § 951, et seq. (“PHRA”), and the Philadelphia Fair Practices Ordinance, Phila. Code § 9-1101, et seq. (“PFPO”).

4. The allegations in Paragraph 3 hereof constitute unlawful discriminatory practices in violation of:

X Pennsylvania Human Relations Act (Act of October 27, 1955, P.L.

744, as amended) Section 5 Subsection(s): (a)

 Section 5.1 Subsection(s) _____

 Section 5.2 Subsection(s) _____

 Pennsylvania Fair Educational Opportunities Act (Act of July 17, 1961, P.L. 766, as amended) Section 4 Subsection(s) _____

5. Other action based upon the aforesaid allegations has been instituted by the Complainant in any court or before any other commission within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as follows:

X This charge will be referred to the EEOC for the purpose of dual filing.

6. The Complainant prays that Respondents be required to:

- (a) Make the Complainant whole.
- (b) Eliminate all unlawful discriminatory practice(s) and procedure(s).
- (c) Remedy the discriminatory effect of past practice(s) and procedure(s).
- (d) Take further affirmative action necessary and appropriate to remedy the violation complained of herein.
- (e) Provide such further relief as the Commission deems necessary and appropriate.

VERIFICATION

I hereby verify that the statements contained in this complaint are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief. I understand that false statements herein are made subject to the penalties of 18 P.A.C.A. Section 4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.
